STAPLE GOODS FROM EVERYWHERE

Glad to be relieved at this busy time from writing the descriptive features of our Holiday announcement, we present herewith what has been seen through Reportorial lenses the past week:

From The Sun. Dec. 12.

SIMPSON, CRAWFORD & SIMPSON. The holiday season finds this attractive and immens-Birth avenue establishment ready for its many friends and patrons. The stock of goods on exhibition em-braces everything rare and beautiful in bisque, sil-verware, lamps, brass goods, leather goods, artistic and decorative glass and porcelain, brie-a-brae, bronzes, fancy and dry goods, not to speak of holiday books and dolls of every description, and at all rices.

The steady progress of Messra Simpson, Crawford & Simpson in the last five years is almost unprecedented in the history of New York's retail business. The store has en enlarged again and egain, and the stock added to raved from season to season, until there is no Sixth avenue or around the retail business centre of the city that offers more advantages to shoppers. whoever purchases at this store will have the satisfaction of knowing that if it is the holiday sesson there will be no delay in the delivery of goods. The firm have

THE BON MARCHE OF SIXTH AVENUE. The window displays at Simpson, Crawford & Simpson's, Sineteenth street and Sixth avenue, are attracting look upon, but the arrangement as regards grouping and coloring is artistic in the extreme.
